I was sitting at my computer... happily unemployed when I got an email from BikerBot saying something to the effect that "My stuff was being posted at HM and would I like to come claim it". Something like that... all I know is that someone had posted a few of my images and I wasn't going to let that happen. It was pretty funny that he didn't claim them as his own, yet everyone commented on them like he had done them... goes to show people really don't read the descriptions. Anywho, I came over to HM. Hawk or BB deleted all my images that the other person had posted and then I started posting my stuff... all in its almost full size glory. It was nice to have a place to show off my stuff other than at my web page. That is pretty much it. I sat and watched the shout box for a month or two before I finally decided to share my great wisdom and smarta$$ness with the world... only to find out that I wasn't the only smarta$$ here. But I did find out that I am the smartest one here. oh my... I am on a roll!

I am still here because if the WW thread is not taken care of she will destroy the site and all computers...

The thing in the fridge... yeah... I don't know.. but I know it wants out....
