Great! We finally get Psylocke and she's killed right off. I wondered if it might be here because after the Crimson Dawn i knew she could go through walls. However she had the red slash over her eye after that. And I didn't think they would kill her off so fast.

I missed a bunch of muties I guess. Have to watch it again. This time to see who's where. Omega Red? Missed him completely.

Who was the guy throwing antelope antlers out of his flesh?

Next time around I want to see: Marrow, Blink, Emma Frost, Rogue (with powers, including flight), Gambit (if even briefly), and bring on Sinister and his bunch of freaks (especially Vertigo). Of course I could add more.

Do an Apocalypse Now story line maybe?
