I'm in the horrible process of changing my long running Angel of Darkness fan-fiction story line into a book. Or at least that's what I think I'm doing. Anyway, I have to change all the Marvel characters that I've used and create my own characters. I know I have some loyal readers (Thanks guys!) so you will have first dibs. If any of you are interested, this is what I'm doing:

Pick a Marvel character in the story line that you would wish to be (Iceman's taken), and let me know what sort of ability you would like to have. So, instead of Wolverine, you can use your name or a made up one, and everywhere he appears in AoD, that would be your character instead of Wolverine.

Does that make sense? Maybe like role-playing, but it's my story.

Since I know Daruma and Masterchief are loyal followers, they will have first dibs. After that anyone who would like to replace a Marvel character, just let me know who, what you would like the name to be, and what their powers would be.

Just remember that is my story and I might not follow a name or powers for particular reasons (such as duplicates).

Any takers?
