Daruma: Do you have a picture of this character? Does the demon have to be present while turning bits and pieces to marble? Please give me as much info as possible. Costume colors, too. Good choice taking the Wolvie role.

Oh god, I'm gonna end up having to draw something aren't I...?

Honestly, I hadn't put that much thought into it. The demon lives in the sword, so he's always present, though we don't ever necessarily see him. Lemme get back to you on the rest of the design.
