I got around to seeing Superman Returns yesterday (sandwiched in between little kids).

I really liked it.

It is one of those movies that is meant to be a sequel AND a remake. Like Terminator 2 to Terminator, or Desperado to Mariachi.

I think Lois Lane was miscast, Routh would look better with a few years and someone cut the kids hair!

Other than that is was great - I loved all the little in-jokes, like the Superman Lives headline.
