Just finished reading JLA zero and what a killer issue, most likely the best post crisis comic I've read, Supergirl Titans and The Flash being the only others and they sucked, I think anyways.

What was my point? Wait I'll think of it ... hmmm Fantastic Four Fantastic Four, oh yea, for those of you have read JLA you know on the last page is a bunch of pictures of heroes and Superman, Batman and Wonder Woman wondering would who should be in the new League. Supergirl, Cyborg, Green Arrow are a few.

So i thought I'd start this topic and see what other Heromorph members think should be in the League, who shouldn't be and what should happen.
