This is slightly off topic, but since we're talking about martians...

I noticed in Teen Titans, they find a bunch of pictures of characters who've been in the group over the last year, thinking one of them is a traitor. WHERE DID ALL THE KID SIDEKICKS COME FROM?!?! I mean, C'mon! they have Aquagirl, Zatara, Power Boy, Offspring(plastic man), Little barda, Talon(Apparently some kind of Robin or Nightwing rip-off) Young Frankenstein (What happened to OLD Frankenstein?), Molecule (The Atom) and Osiris (Black Adam). And these are just the new ones. But the one that really got me is Miss Martian, who appears to be a teen aged female version of J'onn. While I admit it may be interesting to have someone of her abilities on the Titans, didn't the Martian race die out like, 1000 years ago?

Oh, and since my last post, it appears that Nightwing and Supergirl will NOT be in the Justice League, but Power Girl will. Good, she needs the coverage. Also, Green Lantern (Hal), Flash (BART!) Red tornado, Vixen and maybe Black Canary and Arsenal. Huh, go figure. It might be interesting to see Geo-force in the League.
