Come on its just a game, I mean BB3 can't even get my characters colors right, but I am not complaining. Others can't get Mary Marvel right, that is all part fo the fun of this. I am still waiting to see wht can be done with my character, I think that would be the best form of praise that someone used my character in a render!!

Jsut remember if he does something to your character do something to his!!!! Look at BB3 and DarkBlade!!!! They are all over each other and you don't see them bitching that their character isn't suposed to be like that.

It's all good just sit back and have fun like this is suppoed to be!!!!
