well i agree with you about it being lame...but please explain to me how that image is on script there is no mention of the scavenger hunt ,england just the 6 hour rest period..and bb sez i'm not doing round 3 i'll go play madden wtf is up with that..its bull sh&t other people put in alot more effort and once again he squeaks by ans i'm not playing any more i agree with other members here when they say this years smackdown is lame..almost everyone is ignoring the scripts or just being lame i've been trying very hard to post on script pics and trying to show action,humour and some kind of backstory and sub plot..so i'm sorry i can't do this any more if every one else is going to half ass it..so go ahead kill him... i like my character and i'm going to further develop him and do some comics
