No, we shouldn't have the Heromorph awards bi-annually because then they lose their integrity and you'll end up having them whenever someone is bored of making Roswell Porn jokes.

But we do need another awards show! I suggest....(dadadadadadadadaa)

THE DODGE AND BURNS

These would be basically the same but we could vary the categories a bit.

I suggest the following categories:

Hot stuff! (best chick art)

Yeah, good technique (best guy art)

My keyboard needs cleaning (most erotic art)

Bandwidth Buster (most prolific artist)

I don't have any moves yet (best beginner)

Best Furious Max (how did that get in there?)

What are you, a comedian? (best humor pic)

So good I made it my wall paper (just really really good)

You'll note that I used the word 'art' instead of 'manip'. That way we don't need to double up on every category while still including everyone.

And we can have some other categories that allow non-artists to have a chance (but not excluding artists):

The No Comment Award (most *interesting* request)

Best Artist Supporting (best encouragement)

Wish I'd said that (best comment or forum entry)

What would we do without you? (outstanding personality)

Let's make this round fun and not have all the tears and emotional outbursts we had last time. You can all start voting for me now.
