I probably should have just edited my last post. Oh well.

Shame on you MC...

With you taking yourself out of this competition at least now we will not have a tie... Tisk Tisk... I do like how all your girls are facing a wall though... that is intense!

First off... I have to say that Both of the final entries are freaking awesome in their own right. So, with that said, I am going to pick Skurge.

I love PeterCottons girls and the design of his image. It makes me look forward to seeing more! And as always, peter's girls are stunning. That is what made it difficult not to pick his image.

I went with Skurge based on the "WTF Factor". I immediately thought of "The Persistence of Memory" By Dali. It gave me a kinda creepy feeling and then I saw the damn Rabbit and that sealed the deal. I laughed my a$$ off at that.

Anyway, Peter, Skurge... great job on both of your images... To bad ole MC couldn't have finished in time... we might have just had a 3 way tie.
