that'd be great, actually, MC. she was one of the ones i was most worried about having to do. as i have previously and numerously mention, i suck at textures. if it hadn't been for petercotton's phoenix texture for V3, i could never have made the v4 texture since it was just a modification of the one from the bundle. and anybody else who would like to make life easier for me (or anyone else with my texturing problem) by providing textures for your characters (and anyone who can provide a yoda for poser) will be my best friend for life.
