Coke Cola is releasing special Coke Zero bottles for the next James Bond movie Quantum Of Solace.

Now I'm a HUGE Bond fan, more of a Bond fan than a Supergirl fan if you can believe it, and I need one of these bottles. The first problem is Coke New Zealand isn't going to run the promotion, hell they hardly knew about it. The second is that I don't use credit cards nor cheque so can't order any from overseas or know anyone in the States or UK. So here I am hoping someone from Heromorph could help me out and come to some sort of arrangement.

Oh and please don't post comments that 007 sucks or such
