Believe or not, but less than 5 months later I have a count of 274 images at Heromorph.

Given that I currently have 57 images waiting to join Chilly's Thread of Fury (in the Gold area) I could hit 300 at any time.

So any suggestions for number 300?

And easy on the workload... I have exam season coming up (so I will be tired from all the partying).

Partying?
