After years of struggles and stupid mistakes, the Watchmen movie is due out in about two weeks. In tribute to 'Who Watches The Watchmen?' we are having this fun contest for all artists from now until March 15th.

Imagine you work in a marketing department and some manager has walked in and needs you to quickly make a promotional poster for a movie/book you've never heard of. All you are given is a few character names; Watchmen, The Comedian, Silk Spectre, Nite Owl, Rorschach, Mothman, Dr Manhattan.

Forget what you know about Watchmen and make up the funniest picture you can think of, e.g. you might create a bunch of superheroes who all fix watches, or have watch-themed costumes, or use watches as weapons!

Have fun and show us what you got!
