I liked the movie. Even more so when I compare it to most other comicbook-movies. They nailed the look of it, and kept most of the story. Mostly good acting too.

I think they put more focus on extended action scenes than was necessary, but it might make it more fun for the non-fans that go see it.

Also not a fan of the new ending. I can understand why they felt they had to change it, but I just didn't like what they did with it.
