That's funny. My grandpa had to deal with those same conditions when he was getting to school. You must not live far from me? ;)

As for Kirk being a smartass when he was younger, remember that even before this movie, this is the same guy who cheated on the Kobeashimeru (sp) test. If that's not being a smart ass...

I do agree completely with the Spock situation I think you are talking about. Totally flipped script considering the situations given in ToS.

Holland, OH...just outside Toledo. And, in the "Star Trek: New Frontier" series of books, the Big Dog, Capt. McKenzie Calhoun, Wins the 'Maru' test in a unique way. So, yes, Kirk cheated. But, like he stated "It's a "NO-WIN" senario...and I hate to lose" It's just the way they posed him, nonchalantly eating an apple during the test that really bugs the carp outta me
