Oh where oh where has our little Redd gone...

We all eagerly anticipate your return to action Miss Redd.

And as for the shoutbox, I think everyone already talks about you, but fondly, of course.

Hopefully you get a new computer out of the whole ordeal, and one that can keep up with your talents, too!

'til ya get back, we'll just have to make do admiring your previous works of art.

See ya soon, Redd!
