Hey everyone at HM, I know that some of you all have been following the playing card deck art I was creating. The decks and a poster I made are for sale on Ta'veren Tees web site here:

<https://taverentees.com/threads/>

All of the work I have done for them has my name on it (Ariel Burgess)

Thank you all so much for your support, critiques and love.

The HM community means a great deal to me. You all have a special place in my heart, even if I disappear for a while sometimes.

Here is the press release if you want to check it out.
