HEY! what ever happened to the new comic viewer? did we come to a conclusion? i was expecting to see the latest comics using the new viewer but yet i still had to scroll to read them. i know we tested a few comics using various viewers but i assumed once we reached a decision then all the comics would be converted to said viewer.

I've been out of town on vacations, just got back today but when I have all things back in order I will be taking care of that.
