Marvel: Moon Knight. And they've got to do it right too. None of this "change the story to suit the younger audience bullsh!t". If it's done right, it'll be awesome.

If they did it right... I would LOVE it. I use to really like Moon Knight. (I kind of forgot about him when I quit collecting.) I think I started my curiosity about drawing by trying to draw him. Lets make it!

DC.... I want a movie based solely on Harley Quinne. In her original outfit. Don't get me wrong, her Arkahm Asylum outfit was pretty sexy... but it's just not really true Harley.
