ummm, we all posted in this thread,

silly.

Well of course I meant art...besides I hate to break it to ya but 1 token thread post per month still qualifies you as a lurker with an opinion. lol

I really would have thought that the fact I made the site would take me out of lurker status.

That being said, I post in a lot of threads and do many other things here, you just can't see them.(they are in the backroom so to speak)
