WTF!!

You actually think I am going to wait until the movie is made to bitch and complain. Ha, that will be the Day.

I didn't wait to see Catwoman before I ripped it apart. Now I don't think it will suck to the extent of that but I don't have that much faith in Singer just because he is Singer. Crappy movies are made every year. lots and lots of them, some of them are gasp even made by people who have made real good movies in the past.

Anyway, It is soo going to blow..
