Shouldn't there have been a question mark after that? I thought this WAS the challenge thread until I opened it.

Nope, this is the Challenge Thread.

In honor of the end of the summer (at least, here in the Northern Hemisphere), you Artists are going to get six (6) weeks for this one:

Take any model/actress/person you want, and Manip them into a movie role. The Caveat is that the universe your movie is set in must already exist, i.e., Hawkgirl in the Batman movie universe, or Superman movie universe, Black Cat in the Spiderman movie universe, Medusa in the Fantastic Four universe, etc. Extra points if some sort of reference to the universe is in the image, like Johnny Storm next to Medusa, or Batman next to Katma Tui. Bonus extra points if the model/actor/whoever is from the same era, i.e. an 80s actress for the Micheal Keaton Batman universe, a current actress for the Fantastic Four universe, and so on.

Good luck! You have six weeks.
