Well, my name isn't from a comic or anything like that. Mine is from Star Trek Deep Space 9. I was trying to join an MSN group and it asked for a nickname, I had no idea what to choose and at that time an ad came on TV for ST DS9 and there was a screenshot of Leeta, one of the characters in the show, so I chose that. To begin with I was Leeta011 but after a year or so I took the numbers away and went all fancy with my name lol (????;#317;#283;#283;#357;????????????????)
