WOW... I never explained my name. Huh... I guess I am like B... just lazy.

JrMcDeath - (aka) JrMcJethro

Mine is actually pretty new. When XBOX live was released I needed a name. The first one I chose were my initials--JHC.JR-- and of course some one had already taken it... which means there is another jhcjr out there... and there can be only one. Hand me my sword.

Anyway... I got a tad bit more creative and decided to use "JR"... since I am JR. My moms side of the family is straight off the boat Scottish... So, I used "Mc" from McCay... and "Death" because I was going to kill everything online. Well, Ask Thayne... the "jethro" fits me better... cause I can't hit sh!t.

And Force95B came up with JrMcJethro after Hawk changed my Avatar to that face eating hillbilly. (Which I think is actually a picture of our member Billy)

That is all...

Now, I gotta get back to my manip.
