That's a damn good idea. I had the idea today to do a non-comic horror idea of one of the 'damsel' types you see in a horror movie that get hacked up, but this time she's the ass-kicker, chasing a small army of horror icons, including Freddy, Jason, Leatherface, the girl from the Ring, a couple Aliens and so on...

I may have to do a pic of horror-babes like you said, though...
