I would like this to remain free as I think it will generate more people willing to take part if it was.

Prize wise, the winner could pick one of the following.

1. how about your own section in the gallery, kinda like what we give the dead artists
2. your own site theme, banners, gallery icons, the whole site gets decorated with your greatness for a month. inc. the lovely Lady H will get replace with one of your manips, smileys get replace with new ones made from your art, all the banners get a remake with your art. The whole site becomes all about you for an entire month.
3. If I ever meet ya in real life, i will but you a beer.
4. Nude pictures of Matrix and/or Jr.
5. Bikerbot will call your house and read you the 5 day weather forecast
6. When we upgrade we wont make you post in the newbie gallery
7. A handshake
8. I ran out of ideas after the first 2, why are you still reading.
9. I don't friggin know, leave me alone.
10. That's it, I am outa here. Do I have to come up with all the Ideas
