What's whith the lack of voting on this site? A pic can have 500 hits and not a single vote. Do you have to be a member to vote? Are you all americans or just lazy like me? (joke!)

Anyway... we should all shape up and give the wonderful artist on this site some feedback.

So, to set a good example, I just voted three times today. (I'm such a goody goody two-shoes...)

And that's my two cents...
