Are you kidding, DW?

Everytime I open my pic, I look at it, growl, and close Photo Shop. That's progress, right?

I've clothed her, worked on the hair, and started pulling my hair out. Yeah sure, I'll finish in time.

You're doing better than me...everytime I open the picture, I growl and start working on your halloween pic(so I guess you have been distracting me, after all.
). That pic gave me so many ideas, I couldn't resist playing with it a little myself...I'll send it to you once it's finished.

Like I said, I've got an idea for what to do with the tournament pic, but I'm not sure how to execute it.
