nah, he aint the only one.

I loved Sin City, tho I've never read the comic.

I didn't care for the hulk, and Daredevil was great the first time (after that I started noticing things).

Constantine bothered me because of the constant "Don't smoke" campaign. Lil did I know it was actually part of the comic book.

I thought Elektra rocked. Xmen, no matter what you do, you can't go wrong. Both Spiderman's were killer, even with the minor tweaks (and I hated the comics). The first Crow was great, they should've stopped there. 1st Batman was kewl, after that it got too flashy. I grew up on Superman movies so it's kinda sacriligious to crap on Reeve. LXG grabbed me cuz it was classic lit characters with a fresh twist. How can you go wrong with a naked Angelina in Tomb Raider. Besides, that Bungie Ballet was kewl! Ummmmm.... Haven't seen FF yet. I always dodged the comics, but that didn't stop me with Spiderman.
