I bought the DVD yesterday. I really liked this movie and I hope the sequel is better, but I don't like the way they packaged the "Special Collector's Edition". I paid the higher price, $30, and now I have a tin that's hard to open and won't fit on my shelf with my other DVDs. But it does include a CD with all of the Ultimate FF comics reprinted. That's kind of nice if you haven't read them. There are also some round collector's cards. If you've read the comics, don't pay the extra. Just get the standard disk for $15.
