Don't worry Thayne... I watched FF last night. It was another semi-watchable comic flick. Cool effects but I noticed quite a few problems with the editing... most noticeable is when Sue Storm's nose starts to bleed because of how hard she is working... then it cut away to Doom... and then back to her and there is no blood.

But it was entertaining and surprisingly did not suck. I still have a problem with the Thing... but he wasn't as bad as he could have been.
