For the past 2 months I've been debating drawing something. You suggested something close. The Shi'ar suggestion. I was thinking of doing a series of drawings of them. I hadn't decided yet and sorta pawned it off on Vampire Lover when I dropped Deathbird's name in my 29 chicks idea list to her. PM me with some references and we'll discuss it.

Also, I plan on doing what I've been doing for awhile now. Inked drawings that will be up for color by whoever.
