I Can't ignore this... sorry.

Why in the HELL are you asking this question again... Jeezus... you are killing me. Stop with answering your own threads to bump them back to the top of the forums and stop asking the same questions over again in a new thread.

Your last thread was deleted because 1. you bumped it back to the top by replying to your own thread. and 2. Only one person answered it(Remeber... they wanted to use red)... but mainly because you bumped it back up... why... why... why not let it die like it did ages ago?

This thread will self destruct today.

You just aren't thinking here Jr... what if there was a comic about an actual lantern??? See? It's Brilliant!
