Went with RJ to see it last night. The above statement is still true..... As well as the statement that I hated the story as a child, and still do.

That being said, the graphics were insane! And the T-Rex fights were pretty killer! I was all WoWed when he broke one's jaw and shoved it's snout into it's eyeballs. The only other saving grace this movie had for me was the fact they kept having to do over head shots on a woman that was built quite nicely

So to recap.....

Great FX, nice fight, hot chick. Story sucks.
