Man am I having a hard time thinking of an idea as clever as that last one. At first I though BATTLE OF THE TITANS where its and actual duel between 1 Marvel and 1 DC character but that??s been done. So I think I???ll go the opposite way to the Cpt. Marvel challenge and try to turn a marvel character into Kingdom Come.

Basically it would mean drawing a select hero/villain at the end of their careers when they??re old but not quite finished. This is similar to Earth X I know but still, interpretations can differ. Older yet wiser, feeble yet with one last fight in them. Maybe Doc. Doom rules the world now, who knows.

What do you all think? Worth a shot?
