And Kyle Rayner

I mean COME ON people! What kinda cheesed out name is that? I hear that name and think of rain which in turn makes me think of water, which in turn makes me think he's a cry baby b$%^@! Katma Tui???? Ok, quit spitting and I might get used to it. Yeah sure, it's not any better than Danny Ketchum which is a funky way of steering people towards thinking they need ketchup with their Ghost Rider, but God! Gimme a believable name at the very least!

I just thought of this earlier today and had to share it. When the hell is Luthor gonna buy a freakin clue and make some kryptonite bullets? Pop a cap and be done with it, for chrissakes!

Y'know, the only one I really enjoyed aside from Captain Atom, and the occasional Batman was..... Lobo. He's about the only one with some sense in his freakin head. Kill em all and don't waste time sortin anything out!
