A Monopoly Gang-perhaps specializing in "white collar"corporate crimes inc. hostile take-overs and Enronlike incidents would provide the Green Lanterns{especially my favorite,a revived Katma Tui}with a Rogues Gallery fit also to challenge Superman,Batman,Flash,and perhaps others who in the past have fought villains so,me may cll "campy".

It should be noted that when I made my previous post on this thread I had predominantly female groups wearing one- piece body stockings in mind.My inspiration is the two-page spread in Superman:Man of Steel#121.Imagine our favorite heroes being menaced by such groups on a far more frequent basis.no less than once every month,in one series or another, for instance.
