Spring time/early summer of 2003, I received an e-mail from my Dad (who is also a comic book fan) that contained a manip of supergirl and I thought it was the coolest thing I had ever seen in my life. I went on to the Internet and searched for more. One of the first sites I found was Stifler's site and he had a link to Heromorph on it. I came here and my jaw hit the floor. I lurked/commented and just when I was getting comfortable the site crashed. It was gone for all of August, I think. when it came back, Everything was gone and it was a fresh start. After participating in the forums and commenting on pictures, I decided to give it a try and see if I could do it.
