It was a dark and stormy Night.....oh wait wrong story. It was last Quarter of 2004 I saw an add in toyfare magazine for Wizard's Comic Babes. I went there and saw many images most of which ended with: "By ( insert name here) of Heromorph."

After seeing all these people from Hero Morph ( at the time I thought it was just a small group of elite photomanipulators.), I saw this work and thought I could do this it looks fun. So I went and looked for Tutorials for paint shop to use. I only found stuff for Photoshop. so I played around with tools on Paint Shop until I created my first Super hero Manip of Raven.

I came looking for Heromorph to see if it could be posted, to get feed back, to be come a better maniper....I got my A$$ handed to me on a silver plater. I came back with a second image again ( see above) at this point a normal person would have went else were. ( I never said I was normal) I took the feedback and used it in future manips and pretty much made myself at home lol
