I finally got the last vote this morning, send all hate mail to Webby. lol Just joking. The winner is Starchild with 5 of the 7 votes. He won for his Winterhawk vs. Thor picture. I voted for this one to win myself. I just thought it was drawn well and showed a good fight scene. So let me be the first to say congratulations to Star. As soon as he PM's me with his idea for the next contest, I will post it here at HM.
