WH... you are so tactful... I on the other hand am not.

Oh Boy... I think I need to throw out an insult right now. Onewhowishes... you are truly an idiot. So, I guess all the Star Wars comics that I collected aren't actually comics. Is that what you are saying... So, because a Comic, of the original Star Wars, came out months before the movie... that comic isn't..... Man, you really have me speechless.

Yeah, I have nothing to say... and what would come out of my brain would not be nice at all... I think I will bite my tongue on this one and sit back and contemplate why we are even discussing this dumb a$$ thread.
