Unfortunately... If I am going to say, commision Shade to draw me something and pay him for it... I wouldn't want him to then post it here. So, I guess that would have to be part of the transaction as well. Does the person paying want teh artist to post the image here afterwards. Just an Idea... and as much as I charge for a manip... I am pretty sure that they wouldn't want to share it. Just a concern.

But I still think that everyone needs to donate just to keep HM up and running. Without donations the site might go down again. So... DONATE NOW AND FREQUENTLY

Oh, and I don't do spaghetti!.....
