This was Hilarious till I found a article that said it was true!
Oh God help us now!

I am at war with myself. My brain is having trouble processing the thought of Lindsay Lohan as Wonder Woman. Yes, you read correctly, Lindsay Lohan wants to play Wonder Woman in the upcoming film being written and directed by Joss Whedon, of Buffy the Vampire Slayer, reports The Sun.

So the problem in my head is that yeah, Lindsay Lohan is hot (or used to be), and she could look amazing in that whole Wonder Woman outfit, and she has a rather cartoon-like face, but I know she doesn't have the acting chops to pull off the part. Also, Wonder Woman shouldn't look like you could snap her in half like a twig.

Warner Brothers probably loves hearing this news, but I'm sure that Joss Whedon will do the right thing. Oh god please let Joss Whedon do the right thing.
