(not sure if I'm the only one with this problem)

I can't log in. When I go to the home page (http://heromorph.com/heromorph2/) I see a list of forums, recent posts, a 'Picks' section (empty), and two random pictures. None of the menus on the left can be clicked, nor can 'Login', and the account options (inbox, downloads, logout, etc) are all displayed. I try following the link sent in the confirmation mail I recieved so long ago (something like heromorph2/user.php?) and it gives me a blank page.

Using Win XP and Internet Explorer, if that helps any...
