It's been a while since we've had a fiction challenge around here, so it here goes. This challenge will start May 1st and end July 1st at noon. A poll will go up soon after.

The idea: write a front page article on the death of a superhero. Lifetime accomplishments, how/where it happened, etc. You can use any comic character.

Prize: a custom av & rank as well as a @heromorph e-mail address!

Any questions?
