And not all zombie movies have slow moving zombies.

Actually, I think I remember reading in wizard or something, that the "super-human" zombies in the movie 28 days later partially inspired the marvel zomie idea. Apparently, there was an issue of Ultimate Fantastic Four that had super-hero-zombies, and the idea was so popular, it got a spin-off. I think it sounds like fun....Peter Parker turning into a zombie and eating MJ and Aunt May??....HAHA!!! That sounds great! One sequence I saw had zombie Hulk fighting with some other "heroes" over who got to eat Magneto....they ended up literally pulling Magneto apart, and Hulk had to make do with just a drumstick
