Thanks to everyone who voted for me too. Frankensteiner of the Year eh? It's a dubious honour but I'm grateful that people recognise the amount of insanity that goes into warping celebrities into tight leather and spandex. :)

Seriously, thanks to everyone that voted for me. Really pleased to be part of Heromorph. There's other manip sites out there but this one wins hands down every time for me. I'm always surprised and impressed by the diversity and skill of the work that's posted here.

That's enough sucking up anyway. Keep up the good work guys and I'll endeavor to do the same. Maniping has taken a back burner over the past few weeks but hopefully I'll be back soon with some new work. Look forward to everyone's comments.
