I'll have to hunt out my Amazing Spiderman but I believe it was a bit different.

Eddie and the other guy were sharing a prison cell when the symbiote broke through the wall to re-bond and rescue Eddie.

However a scrap of the symbiote was torn off and left behind, in it was a seed that became another symbiote and bonded with whatshisface.

In the first Venom limited series they captured Venom and extracted more seed to make another 5 or 6 symbiotes.
